NOTIFICATIONS

CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 11th November 1957

S.R.O. 3599.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 43B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, and in supersession of the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Revenue Division) No. 53-Customs, dated the 14th July, 1956, the Central Government hereby directs that a drawback shall be allowed in accordance with, and subject to the provisions of the said section and any rules made thereunder, in respect of duty-paid foreign component parts of a radio receiver and other materials used in the manufacture or assembly of "radio receiver, six valve, five band, operated by dry battery" when such radio receiver is manufactured or assembled in, and exported from, India or the State of Pondicherry or shipped as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port.

[No. 256.]

S.R.O. 3600.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of Section 43-B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, and in supersession of the rules published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Revenue Division) No. 54-Customs, dated the 14th July, 1956, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by the said sub-section (3), namely:—

THE CUSTOMS DUTIES DRAWBACK (RADIO RECEIVERS) RULES,
1957

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Customs Duties Drawback (Radio Receivers) Rules, 1957.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) “Act” means the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878);
- (b) “goods” means radio receivers of the description specified in the Schedule which are manufactured or assembled in India or the State of Pondicherry and in the manufacture or assembly of which imported materials have been used;
- (c) “imported materials” means component parts of a radio receiver and other materials used in the manufacture or assembly of a radio receiver, imported into India or the State of Pondicherry on payment of customs duty.

3. Goods in respect of which drawback may be paid.—Subject to the provisions of the Act and these rules, a drawback shall be allowed in respect of the imported materials used in the manufacture of the goods exported from India or the State of Pondicherry, or shipped as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port.

4. Rate of drawback.—The rate of drawback admissible under these rules on such exportation or shipment of the goods shall be as specified in the Schedule.

5. Declaration by exporter.—The exporter shall make a declaration on the relative shipping bill that a claim for drawback under section 43-B of the Act is being made.

6. Other documents to be furnished.—The exporter shall furnish the Customs Collector with a copy of the shipment invoice or any other document giving details of the description, quantity and value of the goods to be exported.

7. Powers of Customs Collector.—For the purpose of enforcing these rules, the Customs Collector may require the shipper or the manufacturer of the goods to produce any books of accounts or other documents relating to the proportion and quantity of the imported materials used in the manufacture of the goods and the duty paid thereon.

8. Access to manufactory.—The manufacturer of the goods in respect of which a drawback is claimed under these rules shall give access to every part of the manufactory to any officer of the Central Government specially authorised in this behalf by the Chief Customs Officer or the Chief Customs Authority, to enable the officer so authorised to inspect the processes of manufacture or assembly and to verify by actual check or otherwise the statements made in support of the claim for drawback.
